KILLED BY A RAILWAY TRAIN, MISS MARY BUSSING, OF BROOKLYN, RUN OVER ON

THE NORTHERN RAILEOAD OF NEW-JERSEY. Miss Mary Bussing, Miss Mary Humphrevs and Miss Hatch, left Englewood Monday afternoon to gather ferus. Soon after 1 o'clock they walked toward Walton station, on the Northern Railroad of New-Jersey, to take the cars for Englewood. To reach the station they had to cross a small bridge over a canal. As they approached the bridge they observed the mail train, which leaves Jersey City at 4 o'clack, coming up the road. Supposing that it would stop at the station they made no haste to get over the bridge. Miss Hatch and Miss Humphreys crossed in safety, but Miss Bussing, when about midway over, discovered that the train had not stopped but was coming on rapidity. In her confusion and fright she tripped and fell upon the track. Before she could rise to her feet the locomotive was on the bridge, and the entire train passed over her, tearing her right arm off at the shoulder, bruising and entring her head and face, and crushing her in a frightful mauner. The train was stopped and Miss Bussing, whin her companions, was taken to Englewood station, where three surgeons attended her. She lingered in an unconscious state until about 7 o'clock, when she died.

Miss Bussing was a daughter of R. S. Bussing, of Brooklyn, and had she lived would have celebrated to-day her twenty-fourth birthday. She was a member of the Rev. Dr. Storr's church and a zealous teacher in its sunday-school. The functal services will be held this afternoon at the Rev. Dr. Booth's church at Englewood, and the body will be inden to-morrow morning to Brooklyn for barial in Greenwood Cemetery. Mr. Bussing and family had been spending the Summer in Englewood, and their arrangements were completed to return home on October 1. would stop at the station they made no haste to get

FINE SCORES AT CREEDMOOR.

Out of the thirty-two serries in the long range tournament at Creedmoor yesterday, nineteen of the riflemen made a score of 200 and over." "You conlin't have found any shooting in this country two years ago to equal to-day's scores," said one of the oldest marksmen on the range. The high scores and the improvement in American rule shooting were frequently alluded to in conversation. Brown and Jackson made the same score, but as Jackson had a miss at the 1,000 yards range Brown won the at prize. The fourteen prize winners are as fol-

BREADSTUFF MARKETS EXCITED. The market for breadstugs, on the Produce Exyesterday, was the most execting for many months, more than a midion bushels of wheat being sold for " future " delivery. There was an advance in all cereals ; flour being quoted from ten to twenty cents a barrel nigher than at the close on Monday, when from two to three cents a bushel advance, corn one to two cents, and oats half a cent higher. It was chalmed by members of the grain trade that the failures of Delbondes & Co. and R. W. Golson & Co., grain dealers, in St. Louis, and of Smith, Hewell & Co., of Philadelphia, on Monday, had no effect on this market. It was stated that a grain merchant in Baltimore, whose name was refused, failed yesterday for a large amount.

SECOND HALF OF THE BOOK SALE.

The down-hill side of the book sale was renched yesterday mounting. All day long bidding went on with the case and spirit appropriate to the change.

The afternoon brought to the stand the publications of as well as in good times. Forty off, or a trifle under that, was the best price obtainable. "Sevenoults" and "Nicholas Minturn" were duplicated at first-class figures. Marion Hastand. duplicated at first-class figures. Marion Hariand's cook book took the sale by storm. After oringing close on to forty off, a thousand volumes to a New York dealer and another thousand to a Philadelphia house were knocked down one after another amid applause. This was the most startling feature thus far in the sale. Froude's "England "came on in turn and tetched a good sum, one handsome copy on large paper being sold. Mommsen's "Rome" crowded close to the wholesale price, and Mr. Cook's "House Beaunfull" did the same, Near the end of the evening Mrs. Barnett's "Haworths" was put up. One hundred copies went for that forty off, 200 more brought a little less, and after some urging 1,000 cepies wure allowed to go at another figure to a New-York dealer. A feature of the Scribner sale was a handsome dinner in the middle of the day at the Sinclair House with Mr. Charles Scribner at the head of the lable.

The invoice from Roberts Brothers was also sold yesterday, and did well. The "No Name" books led of, and thou came, among others, "H. H's" works, Arthur Helps's, Josai Ingelow's and Josquin Miller's in single lots of ten and twenty with no duplicates. Lowis Morris's "Epic of Hades" went low, and William Morris's "Estribly Paradise" brought less than it should have brought hear forty off. Among other books from this house were Margaret Fuller's works, Seeley's "Life of Stelo," and "Ecoe Hono," Leigh Hunt's works, Edward Everatt Bule's, Miss Alcott's, Susan Cooldge's and Louise Chindler Neulton's.
